assistance from across the border, in Jammu & Kashmir, a number of forces and agencies have had to be deployed to enable the State Government to effectively contain the same. Arrangements have been made at the State level for bringing in coordination between the operations of the various forces/agencies which are being continuosly monitored, reviewed and stremlined as necessary. As a result, even though desperate attempts are being made to keep violence and terrorist activities at a high level, there is a definite improvement in the overall situation. There will be no let up in the continuing efforts of the Government in this direction.
